HUGHES GETS INDORSEMENT

Thirty-Two Bull Moose Committeemen Vote in Favor of Supporting Him

ROOSEVELT'S ACTION FORMALLY UPHELD

Six of the Gathering Voted Against Republican Candidate and Nine Did Not Stand Up to Be Counted at the Chicago Meeting.

CHICAGO, June 27. — The Progressive party swung in behind Charles Evans Hughes for president through the action of a large majority of the party's national committee here late yesterday.

With a minority fighting to the last moment, but reduced on the vote in favor of Hughes to six negatives and nine refusals to vote, against 32 in favor of the Republican candidate, the committee took action, pledging the party to Hughes.

The resolutions mapping the party's course in the campaign were drawn up and submitted by James R. Garfield of Ohio. They were as follows:

Whereas the statement issued by this committee in January and the platform adopted by the Progressive national convention set forth that, putting aside all partisan considerations in view of existing world and national conditions, we would work with any man or party who saw the nation's end and put forth a leader fit to meet it, and

Whereas we believe with Col. Roosevelt that in the nomination of Charles E. Hughes of New York the Republican party has put forth such a leader, we endorse and concur in the recommendation of Col. Roosevelt that we support Mr. Hughes.

Resolved, That we hereby direct the national executive committee to co-operate with Mr. Hughes and take any steps which they deem proper effectively to prosecute the campaign.

Resolved, That we leave to the state committees the determination of action in their respective states and recommend that whatever action they take be taken after conference with the national executive committee.

The states and territories through the committee were lined up as follows on the resolution:

Yeas—Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Wyoming, Hawaii, Total, 32.

Nays—Idaho, Kentucky, Montana, North Carolina, Rhode Island, Utah, Total, 6.

Declining to Vote—Florida, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Missouri, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Washington, West Virginia, Total, 9.

The resolutions had to pass the hurdle of a ruling by Vice-Chairman Nathaniel Hale of Massachusetts, who presided over the meeting of the full committee and who was one of the Republicans, that the national committee had no power to endorse the candidate of any other party. The committee overruled the chair by a vote of 32 to 15, however, and the defeated contingent was reduced to statements for the record and demands for a roll call on every suggestion made from that point to the end of the meeting.

NEW YORK, June 27. — Charles E. Hughes, gratified at the letter of endorsement sent to the Progressive national committee by Theodore Roosevelt, dispatched a messenger from the Hotel Astor for Oyster Bay last evening carrying a letter of thanks to the colonel.

"No one is more sensible than I of the lasting indebtedness of the nation to you for the quickening of the national spirit, for the demand for an out and out 100 per cent Americanism," wrote the Republican presidential nominee to the man who had declined the nomination of the Progressives.

Another phase was: "I want to see you and wish to have all the aid you are able and willing to give."

Mr. Hughes also sent last night to O. K. Davis, secretary of the Progressive national committee, a long telegram in which he thanked the Progressives for their endorsement and gave expression to the regret that he had no extended statement of his views which he has made since his nomination.

The telegram left no doubt of the fact that the Republican candidate is unprepared for adequate national preparedness and that the Progressives need not expect a quarter from him. In critical the Wilson administration in emphatic terms and gave endorsement to some of the measures which the Progressives have advocated most vigorously.

TO LIFT THE TAX ON STATE TIMBER LANDS

Committee Appointed by the State Forestry Association Will Investigate the Subject.

RUTLAND, June 27. — At a recent meeting of the State Forestry association held in this city, President Ernest Hitebeck of Pittsford was authorized to appoint a committee of three to investigate the tax legislation which applies to timber land in the state. These appointments include three prominent men of the date. Ex-Congressman Frank Plimley of Northfield, Prof. A. F. Hawes of Burlington, state forestry commissioner, and John H. Harvey of Montpelier, an attorney, and former executive clerk under Gov. G. H. Proctor and at present assisting in the revision of the statutes under the direction of Lieut. Gov. Hale K. Darling.

The plan is to arrange some tax law which will not be such a heavy burden on lumbermen and others owning timber land as to compel the owners to devastate the lands to save taxes. The timber land will be assessed yearly, but 1,000 miles. In 1914 the total of new mileage built was 1,532 and in 1913, 3,071.

SAYS GERMANS TREAT CAPTIVES HUMANELY

Swiss Inspector, Four Weeks in Prison Camp, Found No Ground for Criticism.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Life in the German camps is not all hardships for the hosts of allied soldiers who have fallen into the hands of their opponents, according to Dr. Paul Preiswerk, a captain in the Swiss Hospital corps, who went to Germany last winter as a member of the Swiss hospital commission and spent four weeks there inspecting prison camps, principally in Westphalia, Hesse, and Lorraine. Dr. Preiswerk recently delivered an address in Basel on the German prison camps, which is quoted as follows in the German press:

"The camps in their arrangement follow the well-known plans of the German camps for manoeuvres and general encampments. The barracks, with the exception of those built by the Russians, which are partly sunk in the ground are all uniform."

"Regarding the prisoners' food, the cooking is done on a company and battalion scale. The chief cook is an elderly German, non-commissioned officer, with some French assistants. The food is well prepared; in fact, the method of its preparation might be designated as a model for the Swiss soldiers' kitchens. Although the cost of feeding the prisoners is not high, the quantity is quite enough. The Russians have enormous appetites, but the French and English do not devour all that is placed before them. The reason for this is to be found in the large numbers of gifts that are sent to the men, especially to the French, from home. Many prefer to live on these dainty consignments, which, however, constitute a cause of stomach and intestinal diseases. Each prisoner is allowed to send two letters and four cards a month."

"The working conditions are favorable. There is enough work in the camp itself for a large portion of the prisoners. Scattered groups, in charge of Land-sturm men, leave in the morning in order to find employment on the various works of land reclamation and do not return to the camp until evening. Able-bodied men who are not thought likely to try to escape are also employed individually by the farmers, and they enjoy great freedom. Those who are not able to work, or are able to do only half a task, are quite so fortunate. They are sometimes employed at light jobs around the camps, or after sufficient training, at office work. The hardest problem is the finding of appropriate work for the colored element. The Russians work well on the land if they receive the proper soldier."

"Great care is taken to prevent epidemics. Every new arrival is isolated for four, sometimes six, weeks. There he is thoroughly cleaned up and vaccinated. At least one bath must be taken every week, something which in the case of the Russians always seems to be a great and uncommon event. After this isolation the prisoners are brought into camp. In cases of bad behavior a change of camps is an effective means of punishment. The hospitals of the prison camps are fitted out according to the standard, and some of them are better than some cantonal hospitals in Switzerland."

"The officers' prison camps are also fitted out strictly according to military regulations. Naturally, in their main, the prisoners are obliged to remain in the camps. Variety is afforded by little walks which they are allowed to take a couple of times a week, accompanied by Land-sturm men. It is understandable that an officer in captivity suffers more mentally than a common soldier. In the officers' camps some five or six officers are quartered in a room. They drive tellum away by means of music, reading, and games. Some also have little flower gardens."

"Alcoholic beverages are delivered in only moderate quantities, according to the Russian law, by means of several of them refraining from drinking at all for a fixed number of times in succession, to supply one another with good-sized quantities of alcohol and with a little censure."

Dr. Preiswerk concluded that the responsible authorities did not willfully neglect anything calculated to help the prisoners."

Last year, for the first time in more than half a century, new railway construction in the United States fell to less than 1,000 miles. In 1914 the total of new mileage built was 1,532 and in 1913, 3,071.
